The purpose of this project book is to help 4-Her's learn the importance of participating in community service.

Completing this project book will help you learn record keeping skills, goal setting, planning for your community service, and learning from your experiences.

In order for this project book to be complete, you must complete 5 or more community service project report pages. Make copies if you need more pages.

This book was developed by Tammy Henderson, 4-H Volunteer and was reviewed by Mary Ward, Suwannee Co. 4-H Agent 2007
Introduction

1. Why is community service important?

2. How can community service help others?

3. How can participating in community service help you?

4. What are some things you might learn by doing community service?

5. Why is community service an important part of 4-H?
List the community service projects you would like to do this year.
